

Thomas T. Thomas Vineyards, Anderson Valley (Mendocino County, California)

Pinot Noir 2019 ($45): This 2019 draws you in like a magnet with its gushing, high-toned aromas and flavors of plum, strawberry preserves, violet, and cherry. The palate is lushly textured with beautiful tension. This is poised to impress and gives you a glimpse of what you would find in Burgundy without the price tag.

Thomas T. Thomas Vineyards, Anderson Valley

(Mendocino County, California) Pinot Noir Estate Grown 2019 ($65): This 2019 Estate Grown Pinot Noir is a bit more evolved than the aforementioned 2019 Pinot Noir. It has fresh cherry and plum flavors, but it then unfolds notes of seductive earth, crushed rose, and baking spice. With each swirl, you're guaranteed to uncover another rich layer with perfectly balanced acid and tannins.
